

Wallets

NavCoin is an open source protocol and NavCoin wallets are maintained by a range of organisations and individuals. It's advised to take the time to educate yourself about the wallets listed on this page and how to secure your funds. Always remember that it is your responsibility to choose your wallet carefully and adopt good practices in order to protect your money.

Ask Community for assistance →

Choose your wallets

Make sure to do your own research or ask community for assistance

NavCoin Core Wallet v4.3.0

These wallets run the blockchain & participate in validating transactions.

Download →

NavPay Light Wallet v4.2.0

NavPay is an easy to use light wallet, that allows you to securely store your NAV.

Download →

NavPi Stakebox v1.0.9

A low-energy NavCoin staking solution based on the Raspberry-Pi platform.

Download →

NavCoin Paper Wallet Generator

Generate keys to be printed and stored offline for additional security.

Download →

NEXT

NEXT Wallet

A modern and stylish next generation wallet for NavCoin

Download →

Coinomi Wallet

Coinomi is a Security-First Multi-Asset Wallet for Bitcoin, Altcoins and Tokens.

Download →

NavCoin M8

A high-powered NavCoin staking wallet including NEXT Wallet with DIY options.

Download →

Resources

GitHub
NavCoin Hub
Knowledge Base
Latest News
FAQ
Community Roadmap
Block Explorer

Social

Discord
Twitter
Reddit
Telegram
Facebook
Instagram

Legal

Privacy Policy
Terms of Use

NavCoin released under the MIT license